First car: 1953 Blue Plymouth w/primer on hood where I shaved the emblems and leaded in with solder of all things. Thought it was tuff, fastest flat head in Azusa.

First date: young girl in grade school, went to the movies where I used to get 1.10 for admission and pop corn and candy, but that time I got 2.20 because of course I was going to be a gentleman and pay, I was a big spender, LOL

First kiss: that same date, Shuuuush!!!

Christmas dance date: Went and danced with girls I knew were there.

Senior prom date: didn't go and am sorry now. Went to my wife's in Florida though.

Biggest crush: no crushes

Biggest distraction: Car and girls, girls, girls !!!!!!!!!!!

Fondest memory: girls, girls, girls!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Funniest moment: Can't think of funny thing, but a lot of fun things.

Most embarrassing moment: When I got to the last round at San Gabriel drags, and got beat by a 1949 Merc. flat head.

Biggest accomplishment (personal): Getting # 1 priority for a Freeway extension and an over pass at the most dangerous inter-section in Northern California, where one of my sisters niece's was killed by a drunk driver. Got so upset and mad that I wrote to our assembly woman Jean Morehead, and started an organization called C.R.A.S.H., Citizens Rebelling Against Safety Hazards where we had to work a year along with Jean to accomplish the task. Where I received an accommodation for my part.

Best summer vacation: My R&R from Vietnam in Hawaii with my wife.....
