

Memories of Azusa High School

Name: Rick Castillo aka. Richard Bond

Favorite song: Smoke gets in your eyes

Favorite subject: English

Favorite teacher: Mr. Gillespie

Favorite hangout: Walt Ashborn's Garage shooting our bow and arrow's for hours on end

Favorite food: Mexican

Favorite school activity: Tennis Team, 4H,

Favorite summer activity: Playing Tennis, and 4H activities

Favorite outfit: No comment

First car: 55 Pontiac

First date: Regina Johnson (what a great looking girl she was)

First kiss: A gentleman never tells

Christmas dance date: I think maybe it was Regina also

Senior prom date: Pam Huffstutter (she married my best friend Bill)

Biggest crush: Leanna Richins

Biggest distraction: Leanna Richins

Fondest memory: Winter camp with my friends in 4H (I know, how corny) but it is true

Funniest moment: Trying to impress Regina Johnson by jumping over the net after winning my league tennis match, only catching my toe on the top and going ass over tea kettle.

Most embarrassing moment: Same as above

Biggest accomplishment (personal): Making it to 65 with no physical problems and no medications

Best summer vacation: The Bahamas in 1999, incredible blue water, great beaches and Bahama Mama's